

BRENT KNOLL PARISH COUNCIL

CO-OPTION POLICY

Adopted: 7th September 2022

Review: September 2025

Co-option Policy & Procedure

1. INTRODUCTION

The process for co-option is laid out in the Local Elections (Parishes and Communities Rules 2006) and the Local Government Act 1972.

This policy sets out in detail the circumstances which permit and legislation relating to the co-option of persons to fill the vacancies within the parish council and is based on NALC Legal Briefing L15-08 which recommends good practice to be taken in respect of a co-option process.

2. NOTIFICATION

2.1 There are two circumstances under which the Electoral Officer of Sedgemoor District Council will notify Brent Knoll Parish Council that it may proceed to fill a casual vacancy by co-option:

- a) When a seat has been left vacant because no eligible candidate stood for election at the full elections for a new council. In this instance the Parish Clerk would be notified of vacancies by SDC and that efforts must be made to fill the vacancies by co-option. The Council will be notified and they will decide if they wish to fill the vacancy by giving public notice of such vacancy.
- b) During the life of a council when a seat has fallen vacant (because of a resignation, death or a person ceases to qualify to be a councillor). The Parish Clerk will immediately notify the Electoral Officer and the vacancy will be advertised. If the required 10 electors of the Parish have not called for a poll (by-election) within the legally specified time period (currently 14 days) following publication of the Notice of Vacancy, the Parish Clerk would be notified by SDC and that the vacancies can be filled by co-option. The Council will be notified and they must give public notice of the vacancy and intention to co-opt.

2.2 The Parish Council is not obliged to co-opt to fill any vacancy. Even if the Council invites applications for co-option it is not obliged to select anyone from the candidates who apply.

2.3 However, it is not desirable that electors be left partially or fully unrepresented for a significant length of time. Neither does it contribute to effective and efficient working of the Council if there are insufficient councillors to share the workload equitably; to provide a broad cross-section of skills and interests; or to achieve meeting quorums without difficulty, given that some absence is unavoidable at times.

2.4 Councillors elected by co-option are full members of the Council. Brent Knoll Parish Councillors are volunteers who receive no remuneration or allowances.

2.5 To ensure that a fair and transparent process is undertaken this policy sets out the process to be followed by Brent Knoll Parish Council when co-option is under consideration.

3. APPLICATION PROCESS TO BE FOLLOWED

3.1 On receipt, of written notification, from the Electoral Officer at Sedgemoor District Council that a casual vacancy may be filled by means of co-option and on instruction from the Council:

- a) The Parish Clerk will announce the vacancy or vacancies to be filled by co-option within 21 days of receipt of the written notification by means of displaying a Notice on the Council Notice board and website.
- b) The Co-option Notice will include the closing date of requests for consideration (between 14 and 30 days after the date of the display) and the number of vacancies.
- c) The Co-option Notice will also be displayed in other locations if instructed by the Council.
- d) The Parish Clerk will advise the council when the Co-option process has been instigated by notifying all councillors.

3.2 Members may point out the vacancies and the process to any qualifying applicant(s).

3.3 Applicants are recommended to read the publication, “The Good Councillor Guide” which explains more about the role and the responsibilities of councillors – copies are available on request. If you have any questions you are welcome to raise them with the Parish Clerk.

3.4 Applications will be considered at the next available full Council meeting. To ensure that applications are included on the agenda they should be sent to the Parish Clerk at least one week before the meeting (earlier if there are bank holidays).

4. PERSON SPECIFICATION

NALC legal briefing suggests a personal specification that identifies attributes that a Parish Council should be looking for when co-opting a councillor.

We welcome people with a wide range of life skills and experience that reflects the local community. We are looking for councillors who can bring enthusiasm and commitment as well as some of the following:

COMPETENCY	DEMONSTRATED BY:
Experience, Skills, Knowledge and Ability	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Interest in local matters. Knowledge and understanding of local affairs and the local community. • Ability and willingness to represent the Council and their community. • Good interpersonal skills. • Ability to communicate succinctly and clearly. • Ability and willingness to work closely with other members and to maintain good working relationships with all members and staff. • Ability and willingness to work with the council’s partners (e.g. voluntary groups, other parish councils, principal authority, charities). • Ability and willingness to undertake relevant training.
Circumstances	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ability and willingness to attend meetings of the council (or the meetings of other local authorities and local bodies) in the evening and events in the evening and at weekends. • Flexible and committed to the Council. Enthusiastic.

4.1 Applicants will be invited to attend the next full Parish Council meeting at which their application will be considered. The Parish Clerk will provide applicants with an agenda for the meeting, which will be held at the Parish Hall. Details of Parish Council meeting dates are available on the website or from the Clerk.

At the meeting, applicants will be given the opportunity to speak for a maximum of 3 minutes to introduce themselves and explain why they want to join the council. This is not a requirement.

If there are more candidates than vacancies the co-option will be decided by a ballot of the members. Voting will be according to the statutory requirements, in that, a successful candidate must have received an absolute majority vote of those present and voting. If there are more than two candidates for one vacancy and no one of them at the first count receives a majority over the aggregate votes given to the rest, steps must be taken to strike off the candidate with the least number of votes and the remainder must then be put to the vote again; this process must, if necessary, be repeated until an absolute majority is obtained.

Councillors shall vote by a ballot. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting has a second or casting vote.

4.2 On successful co-option applicants will be invited to sign a Declaration of Acceptance of Office which completes the process for joining the council. Within 28 days of co-option applicants are also required to complete a Register of Disclosable Pecuniary Interests which will be provided by the Parish Clerk. Unsuccessful applicants can request that their details be kept on file for up to 6 months should any new vacancies arise.

4.3 Applicants found to be offering inducements of any kind, at any stage in the co-option process, will be disqualified.
